Consistent with its concern for students, Louisiana School offers a range of in-house and community resources to address a student's school health needs. The Nurse's Office offers students nursing care, school health consultations, a limited resource library, and medical and mental health assistance.

Additionally, the coordinator of student development, with assistance from the Residential Life staff, coordinates a wellness education program.